

Interagency Child Abuse Evaluation and Training Center

About Us

Vision

Children grow up free from abuse

Mission

Assure that the voices of children and adolescents are heard

Child First Philosophy

The child is our first priority.
Not the needs of the family.
Not the child's "story."
Not the evidence.
Not the need of the courts.
Not the needs of police, child protection, or attorneys.
The child is our first priority.

Meet Our New Training Director

Jennifer Witt joined CornerHouse in May 2014 as the Training Director. In this role she is responsible for the management of training services including marketing, curriculum design, planning and development of training offerings, and evaluation. Jennifer holds a Masters in Social Work and brings to this position a 12 year history of developing and managing applied research and educational projects at the University of Minnesota for professionals engaged in ending violence against women and children. She is particularly interested in adult education, the praxis between learning and practice, and blended learning approaches with particular interest in using inverted classroom models of education in adult education. CornerHouse is very excited to have Jennifer on the team.

Twins Fundraiser

Join us for the 23rd Annual CornerHouse Twins Fundraising Event on Thursday, July 24, 2014 vs. the Chicago White Sox. In addition to enjoying the baseball game, there will also be a picnic dinner, fun activities for the kids, and both a silent and live auction!
