

CornerHouse On-site Basic Forensic Interview Training

Learn the CornerHouse Forensic Interview Protocol™

A credible, reliable, developmentally flexible, and trauma sensitive forensic interview protocol appropriate for children, adolescents, and vulnerable adults

What will you learn?

- CornerHouse Forensic Interview Protocol™
- CornerHouse Guiding Principles
- Multi-Disciplinary Teamwork
- Foundations of Forensic Interviewing
- Child Development and Developmental Expectations
- The Experience and Disclosure of Sexual Abuse
- Introduction to Anatomical Dolls

Structure

- In-person training for 3.5 days in your location
- Online learning component available two weeks before the in-person training
- Class size limited to 30 learners
- Highly interactive training includes lecture and discussion, viewing of video-recorded interviews, skill-building exercises, and role plays
- All trainers are experienced forensic interviewers

Who?

- This training is appropriate many multi-disciplinary team members, such as prosecuting attorneys, forensic interviewers, child protection workers, law enforcement staff, children's advocacy center personnel, tribal social service investigators
  - May be able to gain continuing education credit

Cost

- $7,900 for up to 30 learners
  - An agency representative must enter into a contractual agreement for the training fee and associated expenses, such as the trainer's travel, lodging, and meals

Want to schedule a training or have questions?
Contact Melissa Henry, Training Department Manager, at 612-813-8310 and training@cornerhousemn.org.