January 12th- March 16th, 2016
5:00 PM-6:30 PM

Childcare and dinner for all participants included

Children's Support Group

The Children's Support Group is a safe place for children to learn about healthy boundaries, self-regulation, being in-tune with emotions, and creative expression as part of the healing process.

*

Who can attend the support group?

The Children's Support Group is open to children ages 9-12, including those directly affected by sexual abuse as well as non-offending siblings. All children need to do a screening prior to starting group.

How much does the support group cost?

Depending on insurance, there may be a co-pay for participation in the Children's Support Group. There are sliding fee options available. If cost is a barrier to participation, CornerHouse will help address this.

*

Who can I talk to for more information?

For further information or to set up an intake for your child for the Children's Support Group, please contact Debbie Gerdes at 612-798-8169 or Debbie.Gerdes@Headway.org

.....

Caregiver Support Group

The Caregiver Support Group is a parallel group for parents and caregivers to receive support, education, and resources. We will hold one Caregiver Support Group in English and one in Spanish.

*

Who can attend the support group?

The Caregiver Support Group is open to non-offending parents or caregivers who are supporting children who are healing from child sexual abuse. If your child is involved in the Children's Support Group, you are automatically eligible to attend the Caregiver Support Group. If you do not have a child attending support group, but are interested in being a part of the Caregiver Support Group, please contact Elsa Swenson.

*

What if I have children not attending group?

Free childcare is available for children ages 10 and under. Dinner will be available for children as well.

*

How much does the support group cost?

The Caregiver Support Group is free of charge.

*

Who can I talk to for more information?
